

PRIMITIVE REFLEXES, VISION AND LEARNING

PRESENTER Caroline Hurst
BIOGRAPHY

A graduate of Bradford University, Caroline has over 20 years experience in the Behavioural Optometry field. She works in private practice with her husband in Cambridgeshire, England. She is a past Chair of BABO and is the current chair of BABO Education Committee. Caroline earned her BABO Fellowship in 2007 and has published in Ophthalmic and Physiological Optics.

WHERE Barry and Sargent OPTOMETRISTS
1st Floor, Grand Arcade, 16-18 Willis Street, Wellington

WHEN November 17 -19 2017

FEES Earlybird $600 if registered by ~~Sept 30th~~ Oct 15th
Full registration $650 after 30th September

FOR Optometrists, Vision Therapists

WORKSHOP CONTENT Retained primitive reflexes and their relevance to Optometrists interested in development and learning issues. How to diagnose and treat primitive reflexes. A highly relevant theoretical and practical course to anyone interested in the field of Behavioural Optometry.

REGISTRATIONS Contact Niall McCormack 02727 34341

